

ESC CLERMONT BUSINESS SCHOOL

A BRIEF GUIDE

WELCOME TO CLERMONT-FERRAND!

The city of Clermont-Ferrand, or just "Clermont" is located in the Auvergne-Rhône-Alpes Region which is the second largest and wealthiest region in France, after Paris and the Ile de France region.

Clermont is the gateway to the central mountainous area of France called the "Massif Central" and the "Chaîne des Puys" National Park which became France's first natural UNESCO World Heritage site in 2018. The city is surrounded by breath-taking scenery formed by extinct volcanoes and fertile agricultural plains. It is an exceptional and privileged setting for life as a student.

You can catch a direct train in three hours or a flight to Paris in less than one hour. Two highways directly link the city to Bordeaux (West) and Lyon (East) as well as Paris (North) and Montpellier (South).

As a former industrial city, Clermont has evolved into a "métropole" with renewed economic and cultural drive providing a great quality of life. The city and surrounding area are becoming a trendy destination for tourists.

CAMPUS

ESC Clermont business school is located in a historic area close to the city centre and the medieval part of the city. Our campus is housed in two adjoining buildings and one annex. Over 12 000 students have graduated since the school was created by the local Chamber of Commerce and prominent businessmen in 1919.

Students have access to modern classrooms, study rooms, student associations, laboratories and leisure facilities.

CITY LIFE

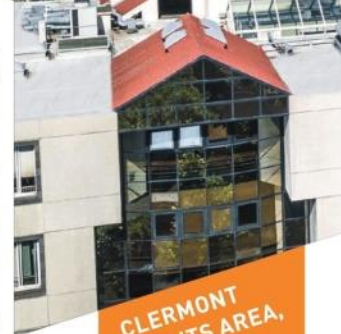

One out of seven inhabitants is a student, ranking* Clermont as one of the top French student cities. The average cost of living makes it the 8th most affordable city to study in France. You would have to increase your budget by about 50% to live in the French capital. (see Student life for more details).*

In Clermont you will have plenty of opportunities to meet students from many fields and horizons. We guarantee you countless access to leisure and cultural activities throughout the year! Clermont is – to put it simply – a playground by nature.

Access to the different parts of the city is easy with a great choice of transports to choose from (tram, bus, bike). If you live close to the city centre, most facilities (markets, two shopping centres, boutiques, restaurants and bars) are just a 5 to 30mn walk away.

MAIN ACTIVITIES

Sports

If you are a sports-lover, you will have plenty of great games to watch. Clermont has one of the best European rugby teams (ASM Clermont Auvergne), three national hockey, basketball and football teams (Sangliers Arvernes, JAVCM and Clermont Foot63).

The city itself offers numerous sports facilities, including stadiums, gyms and swimming pools, which means that whatever sport you are into, there is a place to practice it. Clermont's proximity to an outstandingly unspoilt mountainous area, makes it so easy to enjoy outdoor activities like skiing, hiking, mountain-biking, paragliding and even windsurfing. All are accessible within an hour's drive from the city.

Culture

If you love going to concerts, shows and plays, you will be happy to learn that Clermont has a National Theatre (La Comédie de Clermont), a National Orchestra (and its Opera), two major concert halls (La Coopé, le Zénith), four museums, seven movie theatres... and many other venues (art galleries, bars, bookshops, libraries, ...), your cultural agenda will always be busy.

Clermont is also host to two major international festivals, an International Short Film Festival (the 2nd biggest movie festival in France after Cannes) which takes place in February and the Europavox music festival dedicated to emerging and famous European bands during summer.

And, of course, Clermont is a great place for food and wine!

A 'Local-Global' Economy

The Clermont-Auvergne 'métropole' is home to the corporate headquarters of Michelin which was founded by the Michelin brothers more than 100 years ago. Other well-known international companies such as Constellium, Limagrain, Volvic and Théa and consulting firms such as KPMG, Sopra-Steria or CGI are based in and around the city. Many smaller innovative start-ups linked to the Clermont Auvergne French Tech initiative are emerging alongside the many remaining century-old industrial companies which continue to thrive. The city's attractiveness is further enhanced by its efficient public services and infrastructures provided by the state, the local region and the city itself.

WELCOME TO

ESC BUSINESS
CLERMONT SCHOOL
School for life since 1919

At ESC Clermont, we like to maintain a human-scale approach and we aim to convey the following core values to our students:

A Family Spirit

Family is a social benchmark that helps each and everyone of us to grow, helping to shape and develop individual personalities throughout our lives in a climate of shared trust. We draw our energy from our family spirit.

A Spirit of Cooperation

Success is more beautiful when it is a collective endeavour. In a fast-evolving world, where knowledge and skills have meaning when they serve people, we are better together.

A Spirit of Conquest

It is through desire, enthusiasm and determination that creativity can be expressed to bring ideas and innovation to the fore. Healthy competition is stimulating and a source of progress.

A Search for Balance

We believe that individual stability is the key to a global harmonious society, where every individual is free to set his or her goals. Happiness and wellbeing at work are a priority.

We are publicly supported by the CCI Puy-de-Dôme, Clermont Auvergne Métropole and The Region Auvergne-Rhône-Alpes.

ESC Clermont Business School is a prominent century-old institution and member of the "Conférence des Grandes Ecoles" which is a consortium of the top 30 French business schools. Our School has earned the highest recognition for its diplomas and programs from the French Ministry of Higher Education. In 2006, The ESC Clermont became one of the first French business schools to earn the AACSB accreditation. In 2018 we obtained the EPAS accreditation.

ESC Clermont Business School is a long-standing member of international networks including the ENBS, NIBES and the EFMD and a partner of more than 110 universities and business schools in over 60 countries worldwide. We are also ranked amongst the world's "TOP 100" best Master in Management Programs by The Financial Times and QS.

Over 200 partner companies have strong links with the School. Our most famous partner companies include Michelin (manufacturer) and Limagrain (agriculture), la Société Générale (bank), le Crédit Agricole Centre France (bank), Groupe Centre France (media) and Engie (energy).

Other companies including ASM Clermont Auvergne (rugby club), le coq sportif (athletic brand) or retailers such as Auchan and Decathlon and Ikea bring diversity to this extensive network.

Students combine theory and practice and develop their skills in many fields including:

- Sports Business
- Retail Management
- Auto-Mobility
- Business Development
- Digital Marketing
- Finance
- Innovation and Entrepreneurship
- Project Management
- Supply Chain Management
